

Oakridge Public Library Presents For Love of Rivers A monthlong celebration of rivers

Thursday, February 2nd — 6:30 p.m.

Pacific Rivers screening of "Beyond the Emerald Curtain" followed by Hilary Shoney speaking about the goals and activities of Pacific River.

Thursday, February 9th — 6:00 p.m.

Middle Fork Willamette Watershed Council Director Sarah Drydahl and Erika Coyer of the Watershed Stewards present "River Restoration and High School Stewards in the Middle Fork Willamette Waters" followed by Tim Giraudier's "A visual Journey of Our Area's Amazing Rivers".

Saturday, February 11th — 3:00 p.m.

McKenzie Flyfishers and Cascade Family Flyfishers will hold workshops on fly tying and casting. They extend a special invitation to young people who wish to learn the sport of fly fishing. (Note: the casting workshop will be held out of doors so dress accordingly.) Also, they offer hints to fishing the North and Middle forks of the Willamette.

Thursday, February 16th — 6:00 p.m.

Quinn Slocumb of Upstream Adventures will speak about running rivers, river safety and will display equipment.

Wednesday, February 22nd — 6:30 p.m.

Matt Michel of Lane Electric Cooperative will speak on the benefits and issues of hydro-electric power followed by Dan Peck, Manager of the Willamette Fish Hatchery on policies that protect the health and genetic diversity of hatchery salmon and policies that protect wild salmon.

Don't miss the wonderful door prizes at all the programs!

Questions? Contact the Library 541-782-2258 or call 541-782-1156.

Next to City Hall on First Street in Uptown Oakridge.

